

Abingdon Works Centre Chairman's Run to the Museum of Berkshire Aviation September 28th 2008

Last year it was trains, this year the theme is in the air! Join us as we visit a museum which graphically re-captures Berkshire's dynamic contribution to aviation history. The museum is at the historic site of Woodley Airfield, near Reading - once the centre of a thriving aircraft industry. Miles and Handley Page aircraft built at Woodley are being re-constructed and exhibited along with fascinating pictorial records and priceless archives.

Pre-booking required and numbers will be limited.

Road Run from Abingdon.

Cost is £7 per person.
