

Abingdon Works Centre Summer Day Out

July 26th 2009

Claydon House

Our traditional Centre Summer Day Out to a place of interest for everyone. Bring along your picnic, meet your friends and explore this fine old house built during the 1760s which has been in the Verney family for more than 400 years. Sir Henry Verney was related to Florence Nightingale by marriage and she was a frequent visitor to the house which contains some of her personal belongings. There are 52 acres of parkland and lakeside walks together with a number of galleries workshops and a restaurant in the courtyard of the house or as is traditional bring your picnic and enjoy the grounds. If you are a National Trust member please remember to bring your card with you as entry to the house is not included in the price. The Road Run will start from Abingdon Market Square, and finish at the event and all entrants will receive a rally plaque and a road book

Cost per car including 2 people is £12 for MG Car Club members and £15 for non members by prior booking.
